All parties

¹ Dkt. 14 (the "Motion").

² Dkt. 29.

³ Dkt. 27.

⁴ Dkt. 33.

1 consented to the entry of a final order on the Motion by this
2 court.

3 Based on the court's careful analysis of the relevant
4 pleadings, the arguments of counsel, and the reasons stated on
5 the record, the court GRANTS IN PART AND DENIES IN PART the 6 Motion, as follows:

7 1. The court GRANTS the Motion under Civil Rule⁵
8 24(a)(1), which applies in this proceeding pursuant to
9 Bankruptcy Rule 7024, to the extent Google seeks to intervene
10 with respect to Count IV of Mr. Levandowski's complaint, which
11 seeks a declaratory judgment as to the validity of Uber's
12 purported rescission of an indemnification agreement between it
13 and Mr. Levandowski.

14 2. The court DENIES the Motion to the extent it seeks
15 leave to intervene with respect to Counts I, II, III, and VIII
16 of Mr. Levandowski's complaint or to bring a claim for 17 equitable subordination in this proceeding.

18 3. As to the scope of Google's intervention, the court
19 will permit Google to file briefs in support of or in 20 opposition to motions filed by Uber or Mr. Levandowski, but 21 will not permit Google to move or apply for affirmative relief.
22 The court also will permit Google to be heard at argument on 23 any motion as to which it files a brief. The court will permit
24 Google to participate in discovery, but will define the scope
25 of that participation in a scheduling order to be issued
26

27 ⁵ Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to a "Civil Rule" shall refer to 28 one of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and all citations to a "Bankruptcy Rule" shall refer to one of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

1 following the scheduling conference the court will convene on
2 September 17, 2020.

3 4. Nothing in this order should be construed as
4 restricting Google's right, if any, to seek reconsideration of 5 or relief from this order, or to appeal this order.

6 5. Nothing in this order should be construed as
7 restricting Google's right, if any, to assert a claim for
8 equitable subordination against Uber in a separate adversary
9 proceeding.
